FROM THE EAST

My Brethren:

Amity Lodge No. 4 was opened on the Third Degree on February 4th, 2016 at 7:00 pm for our stated communication after a delicious dinner of pulled pork, coleslaw and cherry pie prepared by our J.W. Robert Jordan, many compliments to Brother Bob for a great meal.

The Altar was draped in honor of Most Worshipful Past Grand Master Dan I. Newman who laid down his working tools on January the 11th, 2016.

We were proud to have all our Past Masters introduce themselves and we thanked them for their continuous support and service to Freemasonry. Worshipful Master Terry Edis from Carson Lodge #1 was received and welcomed in due form.

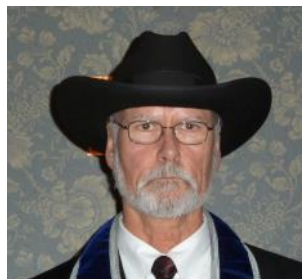

The minutes were read and approved from our January stated meeting and a special communication with Most Worshipful Grand Master Mark Mancha at Doug Boyd's home where he was installed as Secretary Emeritus and Trustee for a three-year term. The bills were reviewed, voted on and approved for payment.

In honor of Most Worshipful Past Grand Master George Washington the Worshipful Master gave a report on our countries first spy master General George Washington. The talk centered on his first experiences as a spy master and one of his first spies, Nathan Hale.

A visitation has been scheduled to Sparks Assembly #3 IORG on February 24th. Your WM and several Brothers plan to attend to show our ongoing support for the Assembly the meeting begins at 7 pm.

Coming up at our March 3rd stated meeting we will be entertained and fed by the young ladies of Sparks Assembly #3 IORG. I hope to see you all at Lodge that evening.

Fraternally,
Mike Cushing, W.M.
