FROM THE EAST

Brethren All,

When the time arrives each month to write Amity Lodge #4's Trestleboard, I am hopeful it will be the time I can let you all know we will be opening Lodge and celebrating our Fraternity together.

Unfortunately, this is not that time. Early in October, Governor Sisolak issued Emergency Directive #33 which expanded restrictions on group gatherings, for example checking individual temperatures. Apparently Washoe County has again been designated a "red" zone for COVID-19 infections and the health departments are expecting another spike in cases as we enter winter temperatures and the influenza season.

We also must consider Amity's demographics and Lodge Hall physical dimensions, particularly when putting social restrictions in effect. Brother Behling PM, Secretary has confirmed pending Lodge business can be delayed another month.

It is critical that we continue our efforts to do everything possible to protect ourselves, our Brothers, our family, friends and community. Therefore, Amity Lodge #4's November 5th Stated Communication is canceled.

The December election and installation of officers for the 2021 Masonic year will be addressed next month.

I hope this Trestleboard finds everyone and their loved ones safe and doing well. If you have any need, please contact me or any one of your Brethren.

Stay well and stay in touch.

Fraternally,

WM Scott Mount PM
