FROM THE EAST

Greetings to the Brethren and Friends of Amity Lodge #4,

April

DATES TO REMEMBER
(TENTATIVE)

- May 6th
7 pm
Roll Call & Stated
Meeting
- June 3rd
7 pm
Stated Meeting

Amity Lodge opened its April 2021 Stated Communication on the 1st Degree with 17 Brothers in attendance. Due to the COVID-19 social distancing guideline, dinner was not served.

The Altar remained draped in memory of Past Master W. Reid Ross, an exemplary man and Mason. Remembrances and a moment of silence for Brother Ross were observed.

Communications were read and discussed; bills were presented and approved. The annual Dayton High School scholarship was discussed. No applications had been received. However, following the meeting it was determined that one application had been submitted to the High School. It will be evaluated at the May Stated.

No decision was made regarding this June's Fun Night event at Amity Lodge. JW Nick Lazzarino is researching the possibility of holding the event at a different location. SW Tony Martinez mentioned the Dayton Valley Golf Tournament will be held in Fernley on September 24th. Amity Lodge sponsored a hole at last year's tournament.

PM John Flangas' generous $10,000 bequest to the Lodge was referred to the Trustees for their consideration on how it would be best utilized.

The Lodge celebrated the presentation of JD Ray Bedford's 50-year pin and Certificate. The Brethren gave Ray a standing ovation and his continued support of the Lodge is very much appreciated.

Amity Lodge will open its next Stated Communication on May 6th at 7:00 pm. The May Stated will include our annual Roll Call and recognition of Past Masters. At this time, facial masks remain mandatory.

As the social distancing restriction is being relaxed, JW Lazzarino will provide light snacks and beverages prior to the meeting as an alternative to our traditional dinner.

Stay safe, stay in touch and see you a Lodge.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

WM Scott Mount PM
