FROM THE EAST

Greetings to the Brethren and Friends of Amity Lodge #4,

At last, Nevada's Roadmap to Recovery Guidelines have been updated making masks and facial coverings "optional" for those who are fully vaccinated (including indoors). Lyon County has restored most gatherings to 100% capacity without social distancing. This is great progress in getting us beyond the previous COVID-19 restrictions. Amity Lodge will proceed with caution; Keep It Simple and Safe. Our June 3rd Stated Communication will again open on the 1st Degree at 7:00 pm without serving a traditional dinner. However, light refreshments will be available around 6:30 pm.

Amity Lodge opened its May 2021 Stated Communication on the 1st Degree with 15 Brothers in attendance. Due to the COVID-19 social distancing guideline, dinner was not served. Communications were read and discussed; bills were presented and approved. Our Past Masters were recognized and our Roll called. 14 members were present, 24 absent and 18 answered for, giving a total membership of 56.

The annual Dayton High School scholarship will be awarded to Steven Middleton. Steven is a very qualified applicant; has been accepted to Arizona State; and would like to be an Airline Pilot. Best wishes to Steven; Dayton High School's Graduation ceremonies will be on May 27th.

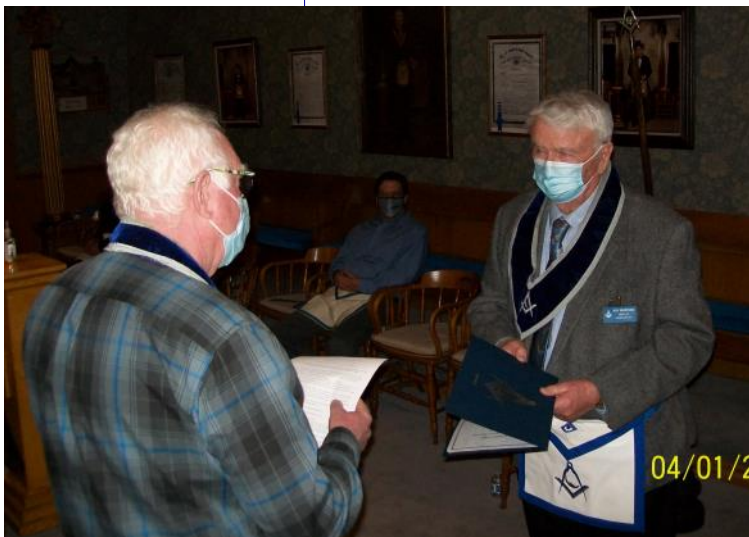

Sadly, our annual June Fun Night will not be held this year. JW Nick Lazzarino is still researching the possibility of having an alternate event at a different location, possibly at the Silver City Community Center in August.

PM Bob Ely gave a very interesting personal account of his DeMolay experience in Cheyenne, Wyoming. The local schools participated significantly in Masonic Youth programs and the Masons generously provided materials and tutoring. The Brethren enjoyed his presentation.

Take due notice, our "pending" GMOV by GM Rick Graver is September 2nd.

Stay safe, stay in touch and see you at Lodge.
Sincerely and Fraternaly,

WM Scott Mount PM
