GMOV Hawaiian night was definitely a night I will remember. There was great attendance including 3 PAST Grand Master of Mason's in Nevada! 4 Sitting Masters and many Brothers. We also had 1 EA, so much for practicing.... Seriously..... this was well done and our ritual work was great! It was very nice to have a relaxed Lodge for the annual event. It was a pleasure to receive Most Worshipful Kevin P. McCans as a first-time visitor to our Lodge. I was honored to present the hand-crafted mountain mahogany gavel crafted by Brother Bill Myer and Tahoe Heartbeat ball cap as a gift which he was very pleased in receiving.

The meatloaf and mashed potato dinner with Bob Jordan's green salad and Pedro's sweet desert was enjoyable. I cannot thank each and every Brother enough for the work and dedication put to helping the Craft. Truly remarkable to be in a Lodge with so many Master Masons and with many having 50 or more years. It was easy to see why Amity lodge #4 is such a great Lodge to be a part of. Thank you all.

Next meeting is September 7, 2023.

"The importance of improvement, setting an example, and shouldering responsibility for the future are our Masonic goals. And where will it all end? In brotherhood. What we build today will endure. That is our hope and our faith." -Stanley F. Maxwell

Fraternally,
Nick Lazzarino , WM
